

TRANSFER AGREEMENT

The undersigned, the authorized representatives of the Department of State ("the Department") and of the Library of Congress ("the Library"), hereby agree to the transfer of copies of certain papers, from the Department of State to the Library, under the following terms and conditions:

1. Described Papers. The described papers consist of copies of government papers which have been preserved solely for convenience of reference and which Henry A. Kissinger worked on or reviewed as Secretary of State or as Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs. They are more particularly described in the schedule attached hereto. The Department has taken steps to assure that the described papers include no original or record copies.

2. Use. The described papers shall be used only as a part of the Collection described in the Deed of Gift and Agreement between Henry A. Kissinger and the Library of Congress dated November 12, 1976 ("Deed of Gift").

3. Requests. The Library shall direct all requests, claims and legal actions with respect to any of the described papers to the Department or other agency or office that originated the paper. These requirements shall not apply to access under paragraphs 6 and 7(a) of the Deed of Gift. Existing government privileges with respect to the described papers are reserved.

4. Security Requirements. The Library shall adhere to the requirements referred to in the Letter from the Director of the Department's Office of Security to the Librarian of Congress dated November 16, 1976.

Executed this 14th day of December, 1976.
